

Integrated Systems and Supports for Developmental Education Training: Evidence-Based Practices to Inform Developmental Education in the Institutional Context of Historically Black College and Universities

April 5, 2018

9:00 a.m.–12 p.m.

Alcorn State University

3505 Pemberton Square Blvd., Suite 5

Vicksburg, MS 39180

| | | |
|------------|--|---|
| 9:00 a.m. | Welcome, introductions, and purpose | Dr. La'Tara Osborne-Lampkin, Associate in Research, REL Southeast |
| 9:15 a.m. | Evidence-based practices to support Developmental Education Implementation | Dr. Osborne- Lampkin |
| 9:45 a.m. | Overview of research to inform developmental education programs using What Works Clearinghouse: Strategies for Post-Secondary Students in Developmental Education Practice Guide | Dr. Osborne-Lampkin |
| 10:30 a.m. | Break | |
| 10:45 a.m. | Program planning, development, implementation, and self-study process | Workshop Participants |
| 11:30 a.m. | Looking ahead: Needs sensing for future technical support | Dr. Osborne-Lampkin |
| 11:45 a.m. | Wrap Up & Feedback Survey | |